E. A. REMY, Sec.

The new mayor will try his hand tonight as presiding officer at council meeting. There will be sufficient crowd in the lobby to take observations and report.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT will be at Indianapolis September 23, to attend the meeting of Spanish-American war soldiers. Indiana will give him an enthusiastic reception.

TOM JOHNSON'S convention over in Ohio got in its work against the reorganizers and reendorsed Bryan and the Kansas city platform. The democrats of Ohio and Indiana adopted platforms that are antagonistic to each other, but that only speaks for the "harmony" that now prevails in democratic ranks.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT has completed his trip through the New England states. On the trip he met thousands of people and made a number of addresses. His speeches have been notable for their fairness, frankness, ability and for their conservative tone and non partisan temper. These expressions have given the President a firmer grip on the good will of the people.

THE Brownstown Banner seems to think that Brownstown has been discriminated against in the recent inspection of rural routes in Jackson county and intimates that Seymour is to blame for it. But such is not the case, as the Brownstown postmaster knows and the Banner ought to know. Seymour has labored long and earnestly for rural mail service for the farmers of Jackson county. Postmaster Masters has been working hard for months to secure this service for Jackson county. He has made several trips to Indianapolis at his own expense to see the superintendent and always put in a plea for all the service asked for in the county. An inspector was finally secured. He came into the county and began work, but before he was done an order came for him to leave and report for duty over in Illinois. When this order came Mr. Masters went to Indianapolis to learn why the inspector was to be called away before the work here was done and if possible induce the superintendent to have him finish this county before leaving it. The superintendent said he could not change the order but would have another man here to complete this work within a few weeks. That man is expected very soon and then all the routes in the county will be inspected. Let the Banner be patient and not endeavor to stir up strife and blinder the work which the farmers are so anxious to have done. The first rural routes established in the county were at Brownstown and Vallonia. Seymour never made a complaint then.

C. D. BILLINGS,
Township Chairman.

The Knights of Pythias will have work in the third degree tonight.

POLITICAL GOSSIP.

A letter from the state committee today states again that Hon. Dan E. Storms, republican candidate for secretary of state, will speak at the Jackson county republican convention at Brownstown, September 20. Mr. Storms is a superb speaker and he will be given a good hearing that day. The republicans of the county are fortunate indeed to have with them at their convention the man who heads the state ticket.

Hon. Marcus R. Sulzer, of Madison, was here today on professional business and took opportunity to greet many of his friends in Seymour. Mr. Sulzer is the nominee for representative in his county and of course will be elected. He is a man of splendid ability and attainment and has had legislative experience. He will make a very useful man in the state legislature and reflect honor on his county and state. Jefferson county should roll up an unusual majority for him.

Obituary.

The following notice of the death of Mrs. Otto Seitz is taken from the Mt. Carmel, (Ill.) Republican:

"Mrs. Otto M. Seitz, formerly Miss Maud Jeffers, of Seymour, Ind., was born July 27, 1878, her age at death being 24 years, 1 month and 6 days. She was married to Mr. Seitz at Seymour November 14, 1900, coming with him to Mt. Carmel, where she has made her home ever since.

"Mrs. Seitz had been in poor health ever since the severe attack of sickness from which she suffered last fall, and had been bedfast for more than three months. Her malady was a complication of stomach troubles, which baffled the best efforts of several physicians to afford her relief. Her suffering during this period was of the most agonizing character, but she bore it all with the highest type of christian fortitude and patience. Every resource of medicine and the most tender nursing were exhausted upon her, but all without material effect.

"Besides her husband, with whom everyone feels the deepest sympathy in the great affliction that has come upon him, Mrs. Seitz leaves an aged father and mother and two sisters at Seymour, and a brother at Raton, New Mexico, where he has been for several months past for the benefit of his health. Owing to the great distance it will be impossible for him to attend the funeral. She was a member of the M. E. church at Seymour, never having removed her membership to this city.

During her short stay here Mrs. Seitz won the friendship of all who became acquainted with her. She possessed an extremely kind disposition and her brightness and vivacity rendered her very attractive and a favorite in her circle.

"The funeral will be held from the Evangelical church at 3:30 p. m. Thursday. The services will be conducted by Rev. J. M. Haug, of Indianapolis, assisted by O. L. Markman, of the Evangelical church, and Rev. F. H. Knight, of the Methodist. The services at Rose Hill, where the interment will take place, will be in charge of the Rebekah Lodge, of which she was a member."
